

2019 “Blanc de Chine” International Ceramic Art Award Overview of Laureates and Award-Winning Works

This edition of the ICAA began its call for entries on October 1, 2018, with May 10, 2019 set as the deadline for registration. A total of 569 ceramic artists hailing from 40 different countries and regions were in the running for the award, with the number of collected entries totaling a whopping 785 ceramic artworks. After the voting process by the expert group of the ICAA's Review Committee drew to a close, 10 laureates hailing from 6 different countries – listed below – made it to the final selection.

(In alphabetical order)

Barnabás Máder	Lace	Hungary
Bian Xiaodong	淼	China
Emre Can	The Breakfast in the Middle East	Turkey
Nicola Boccini	You & I	Italy
Qu Jianing	輪	China
Sara Dario	Wave on Wave	Italy
Simcha Even-Chen	Folding in Motion	Israel
Taxoo Lee	'Re-born' of Qinghua series	Korea
Wu Haoyu	新石器 2018 NO.3	China
Yang Shasha	故城草木深	China

The final ranking results will be announced during the award ceremony held at the Nice Opera House on October 8, 2019. Besides our warmest congratulations to all artists involved, special thanks go out to all entrants for their participation in this edition of the ICAA, as well as the jury panel and everyone who has been avidly following the award's proceedings.

Organizing Committee

2019 “Blanc de Chine” International Ceramic Art Award

June 21, 2019